

What is the Senior Full Service Wellness Program

FSA's Senior Full Service Wellness Program offers supportive, culturally-conscious, and effective mental health treatment for clients over 60.

Our counselors and case managers help individuals and their families cope with mental health issues.

The program is a collaborative partnership with Curry Senior Center, Community Awareness and Treatment Services, Goodwill Industries, the Over 60 Project at UCSF, and the Tom Waddell Health Center.

Welcoming and Accessible Services

FSA maintains a welcoming policy for all people, including those with mental health issues or co-occurring disorders. We strive to link clients with the most appropriate services available. At FSA, we believe that each client has the right to decide who should be considered "family."

Founded in 1889, Family Service Agency of San Francisco is now the largest provider of outpatient social services in the City and County of San Francisco.

Offering client-focused and integrated mental health services

Free for Seniors over 60!

FSA's Senior Full Service Wellness Program helps some of San Francisco's most underserved seniors to deal with their mental health/substance abuse problems and to function as independently as possible. The program focuses on clients' well-being by offering them a level of service they may not have been able to find in the past.

Where are services provided?

You can meet with one of our Senior Full Service Wellness Program counselors wherever you live: apartments, streets, in a community location, or in our office.

To make an appointment or for more information, contact:
